

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

LEADWOOD

C. H. Preston and children of Collinsville, Ill., who have been visiting relatives and friends here and at Bonne Terre, returned home Friday.

Robert Glore of Frankland, who is the father of seven sons, played a game of base ball Wednesday against a pick-up team of Leadwood as good as could be found here, and while Mr. Glore and his sons lost by the score of 7 to 2, it was a good game. And if Tom Glore, who is pitching for the Federal Lead Co., who was late in getting here, had got into the game at the start, it might have been a different score. Mr. Glore, who is 56 years old, could not bat as well as he did years ago, still he knows how the game should be played.

Harry Justice left the latter part of the week for Chicago, Ill., to work until school begins.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gilman, on July 16th, a girl and a boy. The girl baby only lived a few hours. The mother and other child are getting along as well as can be expected.
